

Praying for the 2010 Preparations: Weekly Prayer Guide

Monday: Local Government and protective and security services. The LOC or local organizing committee is the operational arm of the Municipality for 2010 . In addition security services, the public transportation system and health services form the other major components	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. For the LOC and for the many challenges and obstacles to be resolved effectively, for competent staff to be appointed in the relevant roles and positions, and that they will be blessed.</li> <li>2. For a good working relationship within the LOC, for all selfish &amp; political agendas to disappear.</li> <li>3. For the security and protective services that they will be well prepared, that they will have enough staff and equipment to deal with all situations.</li> <li>4. For the completion of the rapid bus transportation system and for adequate public and private transport.</li> <li>5. For good cooperation between the LOC and the local business and hospitality industry.</li> </ol>
Tuesday: Business Many Bonuses are ideally situated to benefit from the world cup, others are less ideally situated. Business are key in the success of presenting the World Cup.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. For the hospitality industry and private home owners, for them to be able to provide enough accommodation that meets FIFA and industry standards.</li> <li>2. For professional client service delivery, for staff and workers to be well trained and equipped and for them to develop a sense of pride in their work and work ethic.</li> <li>3. That business owners will be able to sense business opportunities, for them to plan accordingly and for them to avoid possible losses.</li> <li>4. For business growth beyond 2010 and that 2010 will attract investment in the region.</li> <li>5. For tourism SMME's to also be in a position to gain from 2010.</li> </ol>
Wednesday: Schools and the Youth. Africa is a farther-less continent with only a small percentage of children being exposed to a normal and healthy family environment.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. For the identification process of youth leaders as possible life skills coaches.</li> <li>2. The successful appointment and training of a life skills coach in every school.</li> <li>3. The establishment of a sports academy in every of the 5 clusters in the Metropole</li> <li>4. The development of programmes that will keep children occupied during the long June/July holiday, for instance: holiday clubs, sports tournaments, global community games etcetera.</li> <li>5. The successful implementation of Ubabalo eAfrica soccer coaching and life skills program.</li> </ol>
Thursday: Ministries and Organizations. Countless organizations, secular and non-secular and Christian Ministries will use 2010 as an opportunity to implement new strategies and programmes.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. For The Ultimate Goal (TUG), the organization that oversees outreaches nationally.</li> <li>2. For the successful implementation of the different TUG initiatives, like sports, arts en service opportunities.</li> <li>3. For all the outreach teams that will be coming from all over the world, for their training and program and logistical preparations.</li> <li>4. For all local organizations and ministries, for successful preparation and implementation of outreach programmes.</li> <li>5. For the local TUG office that coordinates all the outreach initiatives in the Metro/Province.</li> </ol>
Friday: The Nations. A total of 32 nations will be coming to SA. The final qualification rounds will conclude in the middle of November.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. For the nations and their teams that will be coming to SA, especially non Christian Nations.</li> <li>2. For the final draw in cape Town on 1 December that will determine which teams will play where in the preliminary rounds for it not to be a lucky draw but God ordained.</li> <li>3. For all the visitors, for their hearts to be prepared and to be open for ministry.</li> <li>4. For everyone that are planning to come to SA with the aim of gaining from prostitution, human and drug trafficking not to succeed.</li> <li>5. That South Africa, and Africa will be a worthy hosts.</li> </ol>
Saturday: Sportsmen and Women. On weekends but especially on Saturdays many sportsmen and women of all ages takes to the sports field.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. For Christian Sports men and women to be witnesses for Christ on and off the field.</li> <li>2. For non Christian sportsmen and women to come to salvation.</li> <li>3. That sport coaches will adopt the whole or holistic sports coaching model.</li> <li>4. For the concept of sport chaplains to be better known and for sport chaplains to be appointed.</li> <li>5. For teams with a strong Christian witness, like Brazil, to have favor with other teams.</li> </ol>
Sunday: Churches and Church leaders. Many Churches are awakening to the opportunities of 2010 and are starting to use the pulpit as a platform to share the vision.  Compiled by Pierre van Wyk -Sept '09. To be updated. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. For the awakening of the Church to outreach and church growth opportunities.</li> <li>2. For churches to understand the Biblical mandate for 2010.</li> <li>3. That Church leaders will be inspired to share the vision of reaching people in the communities, visitors and also members in their own churches.</li> <li>4. For hub churches in every ward in the Metropole to be identified that will be willing to coordinate outreach initiatives in their wards.</li> <li>5. For churches to form 2010 committees or to partner with other churches in establishing 2010 committees</li> </ol>